ENROLLED AGENT

EA - CERTIFIED TAX EXPERT OF THE US

An enrolled agent (EA) is a person who has earned the privilege of representing taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) by either passing a three-part comprehensive IRS test covering individual and business tax returns, or through experience as a former IRS employee.

An EA is a federally authorized tax specialist that operates to provide advisory services to American taxpayers about matters concerning the IRS. Achieving “EA” status is considered the highest credential awarded by the IRS and is legally recognized throughout United states and the US based companies in other countries.

As for occupational duties, enrolled agents are empowered to represent American taxpayers before the IRS on matters such as collections, tax appeals, audits, and any other tax issues. If you are working with International Audit and Taxes but you are not eligible for the CPA US or you want to pursue a more focussed but short termed qualification, you ought to write the Enrolled Agent exams.
